Ringing the Bell/Welcome

Prelude

“And Then There Is My God...”

Jason W. Krug

Call to Worship

Adapted from I Corinthians 15:12-20

In the Church we have always proclaimed the living Christ, even today.

Jesus our Christ lived and died,
and now lives again, even here with us.

If Christ has not been raised,

then our proclamation has been in vain.

If Christ has not been raised, then we are not raised,
and remain stuck under fear and suffering.

But Christ IS raised, and in the most important way raised - in the body.

And we ARE that body, caring like Jesus, living like Jesus, loving like Jesus.

It is THIS resurrection of Christ in which we bear the fruits of the One who died before us.

This resurrection is not just a victory over death,
but a living life here and now.

Resurrection, it is our lasting claim - known in how we live, yet mystery in what we will become.

So come, let us worship together, in the beauty of holiness, in spirit and in truth. Amen.

Gathering Prayer

Prayer of Reconciliation/Assurance of Pardon

You have taught us, O God, “Blessed are the poor, blessed are the hungry, blessed are the crying.” And we admit we may not understand, unless it is we who have been poor, we who have been hungry, we who have wept and cried. In this way, let our lives be the paths that lead us back together. For where we have hurt we know how to heal. Where we have lost we know how to listen. Where we have broken we know how to mend and make whole once more. This is our blessing and reconciliation in You - a gratitude of grit and grace. Amen.

Following Youth Storytime, youth may go downstairs to Sunday school or remain in worship;
five years and below may also choose to go to the childcare room down the main hallway.

Morning Prayers/Savior's Prayer

Our Father/Mother/Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our sins/trespases/debts as we forgive those who sin against us/as we forgive those who trespass against us/as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Invitation and Sharing of Gifts

Offertory

“All Beautiful the March of Days”

arr. Jason W. Krug

* Doxology

Refreshed by living waters, renewed by living bread, may we, your sons and daughters, by your own hand be led.

Accept the gifts we offer; receive the lives we owe.

Unite us in your service; may seeds of justice grow!

* Prayer of Dedication

Holy God, let these gifts help those who are in need. Let us be more blessed by the giving than we have been blessed in receiving. Amen
